

OVERNIGHT SUPPORT WORKER

The Agency

The Calgary John Howard Society (CJHS) is a community-based charitable organization dedicated to reducing the incidence of crime and increasing community safety through preventative and restorative justice practices. To accomplish these ends, we provide direct services to individuals at risk, advocacy for effective responses to crime with the individuals involved and education for youth and adults in the community. CJHS is committed to an organizational environment that recognizes the dignity and worth of each person. CJHS values diversity and inclusion and welcomes qualified applicants from all walks of life.

The Program

Bedford House is a community residential facility (CRF) that provides housing, ongoing counselling, support and connections to appropriate community services to men who are on federal conditional release. Bedford House is communal-style living with 24-hour staffing.

The Position

The Overnight Support Worker is responsible for: supervising residents and the facility in accordance with written policy; performing all general shift duties; maintaining strong written/verbal communication; maintaining flexible approach in meeting the needs of the residents while maintaining the safety of the community; being prepared and physically able to deal with routine/crisis situations.

The Overnight Support Worker must have: strong communication skills and the ability to work in a team setting; some post-secondary education or equivalent experience; good verbal and written communication skills; problem-solving and decision-making skills; and the ability to set and maintain professional boundaries.

The shift are awake overnights, Thursday-Sunday, 10:00 p.m.-8:00 a.m.

This job posting will remain active until a suitable candidate is found.

Please submit your cover letter and resume to:

kym.jacobs@cjhs.ca

The Calgary John Howard Society thanks all applicants; however, only those considered for an interview will be contacted.