The Keegan HELP Fund provides a bursary of up to $500 per calendar year for a variety of positive activities for youth who are connected to Calgary-based agencies and organizations (e.g. school, sports, probation, charity, counselling, etc.). Successful applicants can use the funding for things like:

- Courses and classes
- Tutoring
- Camps
- Sports and recreation opportunities
- Employment readiness
- Identification e.g. Drivers' License, Passport etc.

GUIDELINES

Please read carefully before filling out the application.

- Youth will submit an application form that identifies the opportunity they wish to pursue and how this opportunity will advance their education and learning.
- Each applicant can receive a bursary of up to $500 per calendar year. Applicants may apply more than once per year but will not be approved for more than $500 per calendar year.
- Applicants will be asked to identify other sources of funding going towards their opportunity.
- Priority will be given to applicants who have not been previously approved.
- Up to 50 per cent of the HELP Fund will be prioritized for Indigenous youth.
- Applicants may reapply at a later date if an application is not successful.
- Applicants will need to demonstrate that they have been associated with an agency or organization for a minimum of three months prior to application.
- Applicants will identify their staff supporter to assist them in the pursuit of their goal(s).
- Applications will be reviewed by the Keegan HELP Working Group monthly.
- Application deadlines are the last day of each month. Applications may be submitted any time prior to the end of the month deadline; however, they will only be considered after the deadline date.
- All applicants will be informed of the result of their application or be asked to provide additional information within two (2) weeks of the application deadline. (Please allow 2-3 weeks for cheque processing.)
- Successful applicants will be asked to provide a verbal or written report to the Keegan HELP Working Group within 60 days of the bursary being used.
- CJHS's Communications Advisor may contact you for social media and/or storytelling opportunities.

REQUIREMENTS IF APPROVED

If your application is successful, you will be asked to complete a Reimbursement Form in order to receive payment. There are two ways to receive the payment:

1. Pay for the activity first. Provide the completed Reimbursement Form and the receipt to the Calgary John Howard Society (CJHS). A cheque for the amount of the activity will be processed. We cannot give a cheque for an activity that's already been paid for unless CJHS receives a receipt.
2. Provide CJHS with the contact information of the organization/business offering the activity ahead of time. When it's time to register or pay, CJHS will pay the bursary amount directly to the organization/business at that time.

Note: Successful applicants may be asked to provide a verbal or written report about how the bursary was used and how it impacted their lives. Are you willing to provide a report if asked?
